

Anti-Fraud Policy

Ovintiv is committed to protecting its reputation, information and assets from fraud. Fraud refers to any intentional act or omission designed to deceive Ovintiv or others to secure a benefit, and also includes fraud as defined by law.

This Policy applies to all individuals engaged in Ovintiv's business including all employees, contractors and directors. Contractors are expected to develop and enforce with their staff their own anti-fraud policies and practices that are consistent with this Policy.

Any individual who has knowledge of an occurrence of fraud, or suspects that a fraud has occurred, must immediately notify their leader, Human Resources Advisor or the Integrity Hotline. Leaders must immediately report such information to Legal - Ethics & Compliance. Retaliation will not be tolerated against any individual who reports a suspected fraud.

Ovintiv will investigate all fraud and suspected acts of fraud. Ovintiv is entitled to recover losses by any legal means, including court-ordered restitution, to recover losses from the offender or other sources.

Violations of this Policy may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment or contract, as applicable. Violations of this Policy may also be a violation of the law and could result in civil or criminal penalties.
